- (18) Current Licensees of the IPLA program IBM Process Server Advanced for z/OS (5655-Y02) with active Subscription and Support (5655-P27) may be eligible for the following migration: IBM Process Server Advanced for z/OS (5655-Y02) to IBM Process Server Advanced for Linux™ on System z^(R) (5725-C94). Customers must have active Software Subscription and Support (S&S) in place for the replaced program to be eligible. Those customers with lapsed S&S need to resume their S&S to be eligible for the migration. All IPLA replaced program entitlements once migrated must be terminated. Current licensees of the IPLA replaced program interested in the migration should contact their IBM Sales representative, IBM Business Partner, or S&S renewal representative.

(19) Current Licensees of the IPLA program IBM Operational Decision Manager Advanced for z/OS (5655-Y17) with active Subscription and Support (5655-Y08) may be eligible for the following migration or trade-up:

- IBM Decision Center for z/OS Entitled Entity (EE): There is an option to migrate license entitlements to IBM Decision Center for Linux on System z (5725-B69).
- IBM Decision Server Advanced for z/OS Entitled Entity (EE): There is an option to trade up entitlements to IBM Operational Decision Manager Standard for z/OS V8.8 (5655Y31). There is no license fee for the IPLA trade-up and regular S&S applies.

Customers must have active Software Subscription and Support (S&S) in place for the replaced program to be eligible. Those customers with lapsed S&S need to resume their S&S to be eligible for the migration or trade-up. All IPLA replaced program entitlements once migrated or traded must be terminated. Current licensees of the IPLA replaced programs interested in the migration or trade up should contact their IBM Sales representative, IBM Business Partner, or S&S renewal representative.

Trade-up information: To order, specify the program product number and the appropriate license or charge option. Also, specify the desired distribution medium. To suppress shipment of media, select the license-only option in CFSW.
