Replacement product information

IBM remains committed to AnyPlace Checkout and providing retailers with a small footprint, kiosk-based option.

As retailers look to deploy self checkout for department use or in smaller store formats, IBM AnyPlace Checkout will continue to provide the ultra-compact footprint and flexibility to customize the look and feel.

IBM remains committed to making AnyPlace Checkout easily orderable with the same configuration available as Machine type 4855 today, including the AnyPlace Kiosk and CHEC software.

IBM is changing how AnyPlace Checkout is ordered, replacement of Machine type 4855 is Machine type 4838 RPQs, as shown below.
