Dear Valued Sponsors,

Today, every functional organization is expected to save money while at the same time find new ways to help their company grow. This means that practitioners are being called upon to deliver value in new ways. Operations managers, facilities managers and systems engineers are becoming the catalyst for fresh ideas and breakthrough thinking.

At IoT Exchange, attendees will have access to deep learning in four key areas: Maximo, TRIRIGA, Software & Systems Engineering and IoT Platform & Digital Assistants. Each of these areas will have its own academy – almost events within an event, which means that attendees can easily focus on what they are there to learn. They will find just what they want within an academy at just the right level while having the option to explore subjects across all of the academies.

Attendees will be able to:
- Register for one event and have access to all academies
- Customize their agenda by enrolling in a wide range of classes from novice to master class
- Experience in-depth labs
- Achieve product certification
- Network with clients, prospects and industry experts
- Two other important changes from previous events: we’ve right-sized the setting to a beautiful, more intimate location, and we’re making it more affordable, too.

Event Highlights
- Over 1500 attendees
- Product innovations and announcements
- 4 academies with 300+ elective sessions featuring client case studies
- Certifications, Labs and Hands-on Demo Center
